

E A2/E
Yesterday is gone and past-don't live there,
E A2/E
Many things that didn't last can't compare
F#m7 E/G# A2
With all the riches of this land He has for you,
F#m7 E/G# A2
You must turn the other way;
F#m7 E/G#
Streams of life are flowing down,
A2 Bsus4
Watering this barren ground,
F#m7 E/G# Bsus4
Lift your eyes, He's doing a new thing.

He will make a way,
C#m7
He will make a way,
A2 Bsus4 B
He will make a way for you.
E
He will make a way,
C#m7
He will make a way,
A2 Bsus4 B
He will make a way for you.

Yesterday can rob your joy-don't build there,
Monuments and faded toys cannot bare
All the riches of this land He has for you,
You must turn the other way;
Streams of life are flowing down,
Watering this barren ground,
Lift your eyes, He's doing a new thing.

A2 Bsus4
When I see nothing here
A2
I'll trust in You,
Bsus4
When hope has disappeared
A2
I'll look to You,
Bsus4
When promises seem veiled
A2
By endless night
Bsus4
I choose to see with faith and not by sight.
